

STORY/PLOT CHART

WHO? Characters – The characters start a dialogue (related to the discrimination situation)

WHERE AND WHEN? – Setting

WHAT? – Things that happen between the characters/incidents

WHY? – Something that makes us understand the problem/conflict

HOW? – Conclusion (not always a solution).

Topic of the plot you are about to design for the puppet's sketch

Sex/gender discrimination

Remember that the story has to be based on a realistic situation of this type of discrimination

Topic of the plot you are about to design for the puppet's sketch

Ethnic discrimination

Remember that the story has to be based on a realistic situation of this type of discrimination

Topic of the plot you are about to design for the puppet's sketch

Status discrimination

Remember that the story has to be based on a realistic situation of this type of discrimination

Topic of the plot you are about to design for the puppet's sketch

Age based discrimination

Remember that the story has to be based on a realistic situation of this type of discrimination

Topic of the plot you are about to design for the puppet's sketch

Religious discrimination

Remember that the story has to be based on a realistic situation of this type of discrimination

Topic of the plot you are about to design for the puppet's sketch

Sexual Orientation discrimination

Remember that the story has to be based on a realistic situation of this type of discrimination

Topic of the plot you are about to design for the puppet's sketch

Disability discrimination

Remember that the story has to be based on a realistic situation of this type of discrimination